

Roehm America LLC moves to newly constructed region headquarters location in Parsippany, NJ

- Brand new construction
- Redesigned for hybrid work model
- Enhanced technology and collaboration capabilities

Beginning December 5, 2022, Roehm America headquarters location has moved to:

8 Campus Drive
Suite 450
Parsippany, NJ 07054

The telephone numbers do not change.

The newly constructed office space will be home to the Americas region headquarters and has been designed from inception to incorporate a new way of working. The innovative facility caters to a hybrid work structure which has been adopted by the region.

“The space is beautifully designed and reimagined for this new way of working”, says Jack Chenault, Regional President Americas, Roehm. “We have built a workspace for a new generation of hybrid work style. The latest workplace technology alongside increased access and flexibility will connect our colleagues both in-person and remotely.”

The contemporary open-concept environment will be home to about 80 employees. State-of-the-art communication technology is built into the conference rooms and collaboration spaces throughout the office – bringing our colleagues and clients together with improved productivity and efficiency.

This announcement comes in the wake of recent news of another significant region investment in Houston, Texas – where Roehm and OQ Chemicals broke ground on a new world-scale methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant.
